

Alice Coltrane

- 1937 – 2007

(born in Detroit, Michigan, USA; died in Los Angeles, California, USA)

- Born Alice McLeod

- Grew up in a musical family, began studying classical piano at the age of 7
 - Became a really innovative jazz musician
 - Primarily played the piano, but also played the harp and the organ
- Purchased a pedal harp in 1968 , was possibly self-taught on the instrument
- Recorded many albums and most of these featured her playing the harp alongside her other instruments
 - Was married to the famous jazz saxophonist John Coltrane
- Had a strong interest in Eastern religions, both musically and in her life outside of music

